Scott Aeilts

*Mission Services Associate Labs Director
Sandia National Laboratories*

As the Mission Services Associate Labs Director for Sandia National Laboratories, Scott Aeilts leads financial management systems, business excellence and process improvements, work authorization systems, information technology, purchasing, and other administrative services.

Scott's 25-year pre-Sandia career includes 17 years of business management experience on defense-related government contracts. Most recently, he was Senior Director at Honeywell Federal Manufacturing & Technologies, which manages and operates the U.S. Department of Energy's Kansas City National Security Campus. He has led Honeywell Operating System (HOS) Gold activities, including strategy deployment, Six Sigma, enterprise business operating systems, and product development improvement processes and initiatives to deliver continuously improving value to all customers.

Previously, Scott served as the Chief Financial Officer at the Kansas City National Security Campus. As a Certified Public Accountant since 1992, he brings expertise in generally accepted accounting principles, Federal Acquisition Regulations, and other relevant standards. He is also a Six Sigma Green Belt.

Before joining Honeywell, Scott spent 13 years working for Aerospace and Defense contractor Alliant Techsystems. As the Chief Financial Officer and Director of Business Operations at a government-owned contractor-operated facility, he led all financial, contractual, information technology, and business system activities, executing $1 billion/year in funding.

Sandia National Laboratories is a multi-mission laboratory managed and operated by National Technology & Engineering Solutions of Sandia, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Honeywell International, Inc., for the U.S. Department of Energy's National Nuclear Security Administration under contract DE-NA0003525.
